What do you particularly like about this course?

I extremely liked the group discussions and feedback, as I was able to hear diverse analysis of a single topic. Another point I enjoyed is that I had confidence in what Prof. Schragl was teaching us, as he is currently a respected professional in the field. There are so much things to point out, but one point is relearning the competence of int'l. relations, and changed my viewpoint.

What do you dislike about this course?

What are your suggestions for improving this course?

I believe if this was a seminar that one has to attend every week, it would be beneficial. My only complaint is that the block course is too short
